Dear Mr. Jordan;

I am writing in reference to your letter of February 28, 2013 concerning the Bongino for Senate campaign's complaint about my campaign's robocall not having a disclaimer. The previous answer I provided to the initial complaint filed by Mr Bongino's campaign still stands. In that response I provided an audio of the call with a disclaimer.

If indeed a disclaimer was not included by the vendor, it was corrected. It is my understanding that if a robocall without a disclaimer was recorded by supporters of Mr. Bongino then it was an isolated event based on a possible mistake by the vendor. Unfortunately, all my campaign staff have since left and all campaign activities have terminated. I kindly ask that you dismiss this case if possible.

My focus since the election has been to pursue the promises I made to the people of Maryland to a) revive the ice cream making plant in Hagerstown where 440 workers were laid off; b) raise money of historically black colleges in Maryland and c) attract $3 billion in infrastructure investment to build badly needed roads and bridges.

I am happy to stop by your office to meet with you and your colleagues to discuss the issue brought forth by Mr. Bongino's campaign.

Best regards

Rob Sobhani
